Brunswick Panatropes

Illustrating his proverbial good taste in music as in all other things, H.R.H. has installed a trio of Brunswick Panatropes in his Royal quarters. Why?—Because the Brunswick Panatrope is the world's first and only proven electrical record-playing instrument. Because it is the only one to reproduce every note in the ENTIRE MUSICAL SCALE. Because its reproduction of music is so perfect that no other instrument can approach it.

See it. Hear it—at your Brunswick dealer's today.
Brunswick Panatropes are priced from $115 to $1650.

WANTS FLOCK IN ONE SPOT WEST CANADA

WINNIPEG, Sept. 22.—A plan which has as its ultimate goal the concentration of all flocking in a single flock in western Canada, was disclosed by the Hon. J. A. McCreary, Minister of the Interior, in a speech made at the University of Manitoba, on his return here Thursday night.

Mr. McCreary declared that he was not ignorant of conditions prevailing among the flocking in the west, but stated that he was anxious to increase the number of flocking in the west.

A brief note was made in Ottawa where Mr. McCreary conferred with Hon. C. A. Dunning, Minister of the Interior, and Hon. J. A. McCreary, Minister of the Interior, on the subject of flocking.

Mr. McCreary indicated that he was most anxious that the flocking in the west should be increased, and that he was most anxious that the flocking in the west should be increased.

We are willing to give the government our brains and our money, but not our minds, he declared.

Asked what he thought of the recent charges that the flocking in the west was being increased, Mr. McCreary declared that he was most anxious that the flocking in the west should be increased.

There are approximately 12,000 flocking in the west, he declared, and he was most anxious that the flocking in the west should be increased.
